THE PRESBYTERY OF POTOMAC held an adjourned meeting in the First Presbyterian Church, in this place, last night, and was opened by a sermon by Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Washington. Considerable business was done at this meeting, but nothing of special public importance. Presbytery adjourned to meet in the New York Avenue Church, Washington, on the evening of the first of May next.

In compliance with a request of the executors, the Washington Orphans' Court has granted the privilege of selling in London, the consols belonging to the estate of the late John C. Rives, valued at a hundred thousand dollars in gold, and investing the proceeds in United States securities.

A MEETING to nominate a candidate for a seat in the U. S. House of Representatives, was held in the U. S. District Court room, in this place, yesterday. A committee on credentials reported delegates present from Alexandria, Fairfax and Loudoun. A motion to admit two or three persons from Fauquier, Loudoun and Prince William, gave rise to a very excited debate, participated in by Messrs. Wm. Arnold, C. A. Ware, and Jefferson Tacey, who opposed the motion, and Messrs. Downey, Tucker and Hoge, who favored it. The subject was finally laid on the table, and the meeting adjourned, without transacting any business, subject to the call of a committee of five and the Chairman, it being stated in the resolution for adjournment, that the present assemblage was entirely too small to undertake to make a nomination.

On Monday evening the Jewish population commenced the observance of the Passover, or the Feast of Unleavened Bread, instituted in commemoration of the deliverance of the children of Israel from the bondage of the Egyptians.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The subscriber takes pleasure in informing the citizens and sojourners of Alexandria, that he is now prepared (after having been to a heavy expense, in having his fountains and apparatus relined with block tin and thoroughly renovated in every respect,) to furnish what he has heretofore done, with a superior article of

SODA WATER.

He is also happy to be able to say that he has made arrangements by which he will receive daily a supply of

from the most delicious fruits, whereby, he flatters himself that in the article of Syrups he cannot be equalled in this city.

Thankful for your former patronage, he solicits a continuance of the same.
